

GRADUATE STUDENT TRAVEL GRANTS

HIAA offers travel grants to graduate students who have been invited or accepted to present papers at an annual meeting of a professional society (usually those with which HIAA is affiliated*), as well as at HIAA's own majlis and other scholarly conferences. Preference is given to papers to be presented at HIAA-sponsored panels. The travel grants are offered by application only to graduate student members of HIAA, and carry a maximum award of $500. each.

* HIAA is currently an affiliated member of: the Middle East Studies Association, College Art Association, and Society of Architectural Historians.

Applications must include:

- A cover letter summarizing the application.
- A separate sheet listing the applicant's name; institutional affiliation and status (e.g., Ph.D. candidate, 3rd year); e-mail address; name of primary institutional advisor; conference title, dates and venue; paper title; itemized travel budget.
- A letter of support from the student's advisor.
- Abstract of the paper to be presented.
- The notification of acceptance from the conference/session organizer(s).

The application deadlines for 2011-2012 are: 1 July 2011 and 12 December 2011

Applications may be submitted by e-mail to the Chair of the Fellowship and Grant Committee:

Dr. Nancy Micklewright
Head of Scholarly Programs and Publications
Freer|Sackler
Smithsonian's Museums of Asian Art
searssj@si.edu